Testimonials

"Your acceptance of the late instructions was so appreciated and then your work overnight and today was exemplary. Your advocacy and your advice on strategy was excellent. I particularly appreciated and respected the care and kindness with which you supported... yet still gave such great and clear advice throughout. Thank you!"

"He obtained incredible results for our client, who was extremely pleased and wishes to instruct him again on future matters." – Professional Client

Recent Seminars

2024: Current Issues in Modest Asset Cases: Part 1. Considered two issues (i) What's in the Pot? 'matrimonialisation' after Standish v Standish [2024] EWCA 567 and (ii) The 'Chimera' Problem - Family Loans & Resources

2025: Current Issues in Modest Asset Cases: Part 2. Consideration of (i) Conduct (ii) Costs and (iii) Non-Court Dispute Resolution.

Both seminars co-presented with Elizabeth Wark.

Laurence enjoys contributing to student training at Gray's Inn and, in 2025, helped judge the University of Greenwich Moot competition.

He works with the charity Bridging the Bar to mentor aspirant barristers from non-traditional backgrounds.

Before transferring to the Bar, Laurence worked in procurement, gaining extensive experience of business negotiation. He has chaired a charity and worked directly with countless vulnerable and homeless people.

His communication skills, and his sensitive yet determined approach are appreciated by both clients and tribunals.
